

I am writing in support of RM-10209 and proposed amateur radio access to the 60meter band of frequencies. I believe it will help the hobby to grow and also add extra capability for use in ARES and other public service venues.